מוֹדֶה אֲנִי

MODEH ANI

PLUS CARD

RECOGNIZE. GIVE THANKS. AWAKEN.

Wake up your soul

A gift for you

WHAT IT IS

An ancient prayer of gratitude

Modeh Ani are the first words of the day: a short phrase of thanks the moment you open your eyes.

For generations, countless people have begun every morning this way. It isn't a complicated ritual, and you don't need to know Hebrew. It's for every person, from anywhere: all it takes is waking up and recognizing that you've been given one more day.

12
SECONDS

AS YOU OPEN YOUR EYES

FOR EVERY PERSON

WHAT'S INSIDE

The prayer, to read without knowing Hebrew 3
Word by word 4
When and how to say it 5
The intention: with what heart 6
The 12-second guide 7
My 7-morning practice 8

How to use it: read it once, calmly. Then, each morning, page 3 or the 12-second guide is all you need.

THE PRAYER

Modeh Ani

WHEN TO SAY IT

As soon as you wake up, still in bed, before anything else.

מוֹדֶה אֲנִי לְפָנֶיךָ

Mo·deh a·ni le·fa·ne·cha

מֶלֶךְ חַי וְקַיָּם,

Me·lech chai v'·ka·yam

שֶׁהֶחֱזַרְתָּ בִּי נִשְׁמָתִי בְּחֶמְלָה.

she·he·che·zar·ta bi nish·ma·ti b'chem·la

רַבָּה אֱמוּנָתֶךָ.

ra·ba e·mu·na·te·cha

Read it like this, syllable by syllable. The gold syllable is the stressed one.
"ch" is throaty, as in the Scottish loch · "ai" as in Thai · "e" as in bed

ALL TOGETHER

Modeh ani lefanecha, melech chai v'kayam, she-he-chezarta bi nishmati b'chemla, raba emunatecha.

TRANSLATION

I offer thanks to You, living and eternal King, for You have mercifully restored my soul within me; Your faithfulness is great.

מוֹדָה

If you're a woman, say Modah ani instead of Modeh ani. Everything else stays the same.

WORD BY WORD

What you're saying

מוֹדֶה אֲנִי

Modeh ani

I THANK · I ACKNOWLEDGE

The first word of the day is thank you. And giving thanks begins with recognizing that there is Someone to thank.

לְפָנֶיךָ

lefanecha

BEFORE YOU

I'm not speaking to a distant idea: I'm speaking up close, as to Someone who is right here with me.

מֶלֶךְ חַי וְקַיָּם

melech chai v'kayam

LIVING AND ETERNAL KING

The Creator is alive and present, holding up the world at this very moment.

שֶׁהֶחֱזַרְתָּ בִּי נִשְׁמָתִי

she-he-chezarta bi nishmati

FOR YOU HAVE RESTORED MY SOUL

I woke up because my soul was given back to me. Today is a new gift, still unopened.

בְּחֶמְלָה

b'chemla

WITH COMPASSION

It comes back with love, without holding yesterday against me.

רַבָּה אֱמוּנָתֶךָ

raba emunatecha

GREAT IS YOUR FAITHFULNESS

And great is Your trust: if You gave me one more day, it's because You trust that I have something good to give.

WHEN AND HOW

First thing, before anything else

ON WAKING

The moment you open your eyes, still in bed. Before you get up.

BEFORE YOUR PHONE

Before checking messages or the news. Let the first thing of the day be a thank-you.

EVEN BEFORE WASHING

You can say it right away, just as you woke up. The words are so simple and pure that they don't need to wait.

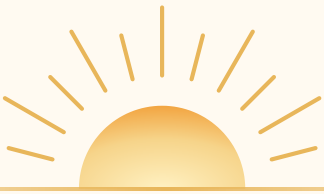

IN 12 SECONDS

Slowly, softly or silently. In Hebrew or in your own language: what matters is what you feel as you say it.

FORGOT?

Say it as soon as you remember. It's never too late to give thanks.

Tip: print the simple card and keep it by your bed, where you'll see it when you open your eyes.

"The world doesn't wake up only when the sun rises. It wakes up when every human being recognizes the Creator and turns that recognition into light for others."

THE INTENTION · KAVANAH

With what heart to say it

The words are short. The intention is what fills them with life. As you say them, think of three things:

1. I recognize the Creator
   There is a Creator of the world who gave me life. I'm not here by chance.

2. I give thanks for my soul and the new day
   My soul has come back to me. I have a whole day ahead of me, brand new.

3. I accept His trust: a mission
   If He woke me up, it's because He trusts me. Today there is something good that only I can do.

"Today the Creator trusted me.
I will live up to it."

PRACTICAL GUIDE

Your Modeh Ani in 12 seconds

1 Open your eyes 2 s

Stay still for a moment. A new day has begun.

2 Recognize 3 s

Think: there is a Creator who gave my soul back to me.

3 Say Modeh Ani 5 s

Slowly, word by word:

Modeh ani lefanecha, melech chai v'kayam, she-he-chezarta bi nishmati b'chemla, raba emunatecha.

4 Wake up to your mission 2 s

Ask yourself: what good can I do today? Then go and do it.

MY PRACTICE

My 7 mornings

Seven days in a row, twelve seconds each morning. Tick the box and write down one thing you're grateful for.

MORNING 1 ☐ I said Modeh Ani — Today I'm grateful for... _____

MORNING 2 ☐ I said Modeh Ani — Today I'm grateful for... _____

MORNING 3 ☐ I said Modeh Ani — Today I'm grateful for... _____

MORNING 4 ☐ I said Modeh Ani — Today I'm grateful for... _____

MORNING 5 ☐ I said Modeh Ani — Today I'm grateful for... _____

MORNING 6 ☐ I said Modeh Ani — Today I'm grateful for... _____

MORNING 7 ☐ I said Modeh Ani — Today I'm grateful for... _____

MODEH ANI · PLUS CARD

“The world awakens when humanity recognizes and thanks its Creator.”

SHARE THIS GIFT

Send it to someone you love. Maybe tomorrow they’ll wake up giving thanks.

SEND US YOUR PHOTO AND YOUR STORY

hola@modeani.org

RECOGNIZE. GIVE THANKS. AWAKEN.

Wake up your soul

#WakeUpYourSoul